

AIHA Indiana Conference Kick-Off Mixer and Student Night

When: Wednesday, September 28, 2011 - 6:30pm-8:30pm

Where: at the Embassy Suites Hotel North, 3912 Vincennes Road, Indianapolis (near I-465 and Michigan Rd.).

AIHA Indiana is hosting a free networking event:

- You will have an opportunity to hear special announcements about the American Industrial Hygiene Conference & Exposition (AIHce) coming to Indianapolis this Spring...
- Enjoy complimentary drinks and hors d'oeuvres with like-minded professionals in an open, networking setting.
- Re-connect with your VENDORS and meet the students!
- Hear firsthand what local professionals and companies are doing now in preparation for hosting 5000+ Occupational Health, Safety, Environmental and allied professionals at the conference. Volunteer opportunities will also be discussed.
- Learn about the 2012 scholarship program for Purdue University students.
- IPAD 2 RAFFLE: Know a co-worker or peer that is not an AIHA Indiana Local Section member? Bring them to the Mixer, sign them up as an Associate member and you will each be entered into a drawing for an iPad 2. A separate ticket will be entered into the drawing for each new member you bring including yourself. Local membership is only $20 and anyone with an interest in industrial hygiene (including allied professional) can become an Associate member.

More info on the AIHA event here. Please RSVP to indiana.aiha@gmail.com with "Mixer" in the subject line as soon as possible. Purdue students must attend to be eligible for the 2012 scholarships. Please feel free to contact Beauregard Middaugh (Secretary, AIHA Indiana) by phone at (765) 760-1590 or at indiana.aiha@gmail.com regarding any questions.

Hope to see you soon!
